COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

1. The undersigned hereby assigns to The German Institute of Navigation (the "DGON") all rights under copyright that may exist in and to the above Work and to any associated written or multimedia components or other enhancements accompanying the Work.
2. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Work is original and that he/she is the author of the Work. To the extent the Work incorporate text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. Where necessary, the undersigned has obtained all third-party permissions and consents to grant the license above and has provided copies of such permissions and consents to the DGON.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.

The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the DGON from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.

Authors/employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.

If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, the DGON assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright.

Authors whose work was performed under a grant from a government funding agency are free to fulfill any deposit mandates from that funding agency.

In the event the above Work is not accepted and published by the DGON or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the IRS, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to the IRS will be destroyed.

For jointly authored Works, all joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.
